SODEXO JUSTICE QUICK FACTS

• Sodexo does not operate immigrant detention centers anywhere in the world.
• Sodexo does not profit from prison labor.
• Sodexo only manages prisons that hold adult prisoners.

• Sodexo’s services are routinely and randomly inspected by the respective Ministries of Justice with favorable results.
• Sodexo fully operates 5 prisons in the UK and 1 in Australia on behalf of their state Governments.
• Sodexo’s contracts are not volume-related, meaning we receive virtually the same revenue whether there are 100 or 1,000 prisoners in our jails.
• In 84 other prisons in South America and Europe, we provide individual services such as custodial, maintenance or food service.

• Most of our prison workshops are to train prisoners and any profit generated from these workshops must be reported.
• Any profit above an agreed level is reinvested in the prison solely for the benefit of the prisoners.
